

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE

COMMENCEMENT

MIDDLEBURY, VERMONT
SUNDAY, MAY 29, 2016

For those who would like to be out of the weather, a live broadcast of the ceremony is available in two locations: Wilson Hall, in McCullough Student Center (directly behind the rain tent—handicap facilities available), and Mead Chapel (up the hill—portable handicap facility available).

The Accessibility Services (ADA) tent is located on the right-hand side of the Commencement site. Phonic Ear services are located in the Accessibility Services tent.

The wheelchair seating area is located at the front, near the Accessibility Services tent.

Large-print programs are available at each program-distribution table.

Guests who wish to use the services of an ASL interpreter may be seated in the reserved ASL area. (Please stop by the Accessibility Services tent to obtain an admission ticket and directions to the area.)

HONORARY DEGREE RECIPIENTS

SRINIVAS ARAVAMUDAN

Doctor of Humane Letters

Srinivas Aravamudan was an internationally recognized champion of the humanities and their role in contemporary society. He was a professor of English, romance studies, and the literature program, and a former dean of the humanities at Duke University.

He served as the president of the Consortium of Humanities Centers and Institutes and as first vice president of the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies. He was director of the Franklin Humanities Institute at Duke and oversaw Duke's Humanities Writ Large initiative, which is a five-year effort to redefine the role of humanities in undergraduate education. Aravamudan was president of the international Consortium of Humanities Centers and Institutes from 2007–2012 and 2014–2016 and of the American Society for Eighteenth-Century Studies from 2015 to 2016.

Aravamudan's areas of expertise included 18th-century British and French literatures, postcolonial studies, and literary theory. He was a distinguished author whose books included Tropicopolitans: Colonialism and Agency, 1688–1804, which won the Modern Language Association's outstanding first book prize in 2000. His other works included Guru English: South Asian Religion in a Cosmopolitan Language and his most recent book, Enlightenment Orientalism: Resisting the Rise of the Novel, which was published in 2012.

Aravamudan was awarded his honorary degree on April 9. He died April 13, 2016.

SUSAN M. COLLINS

Doctor of Laws

Senator Susan M. Collins, the senior United States senator of Maine, was first elected to the Senate in 1996. Collins ranks 19th in Senate seniority and is the most senior Republican woman. She chairs the Senate Select Committee on Aging and the Transportation, Housing, and Urban Development Appropriations Subcommittee and serves on the Intelligence Committee as well as the Committee on Health, Education, Labor, and Pensions.

Collins graduated Phi Beta Kappa from St. Lawrence University in 1975 and began working for Representative William Cohen in Washington, D.C. In 1987, Collins was appointed by Governor John McKernan as commissioner of the Maine Department of Professional and Financial Regulation. Five years later, she was appointed by President George W. Bush as director of the Small Business Administration's regional office in Boston. Collins continued her advocacy for small businesses by serving as the founding executive director of the Center for Family Business at Husson University.

During her time as a U.S. senator, Collins has earned a national reputation for working across party lines to seek consensus on our nation's most important issues and is respected by colleagues on both sides of the aisle. For the last three years in a row, Collins has been ranked as the most bipartisan member of the U.S. Senate by the Lugar Center and Georgetown University. Known for her Maine work ethic, Collins has never missed a vote in her 19 years in office—more than 6,000 consecutive votes.

JOHN GROTZINGER

Doctor of Science

John Grotzinger, Fletcher Jones Professor of Geology at California Institute of Technology in the Division of Geological and Planetary Sciences, was the chief scientist and head of strategic science planning for NASA's Mars Science Laboratory Curiosity rover mission, the $2.5 billion operation that brought the most complex spacecraft to ever land and operate on the surface of another planet.

Grotzinger was also part of NASA's Opportunity rover team that discovered evidence of liquid water on ancient Mars, and he was a participating scientist for the Mars Exploration Rovers and the High Resolution Science Experiment camera on board the Mars Reconnaissance Orbiter. He has received the NASA Group Achievement Award, Mars Science Laboratory Mission, and the NASA Outstanding Public Leadership Medal. Popular Mechanics named him number two on its list of "10 Innovators Who Changed the World."

A veteran geologist with more than 30 years of exploration of Earth and Mars, Grotzinger was awarded the Charles Doolittle Walcott Medal from the National Academy of Sciences, which is only granted once every five years, in recognition of his contributions to understanding the coevolution of life and environment on early Earth.

Hannah Grotzinger, his daughter, is a member of the Middlebury Class of 2016.

VAN JONES

Doctor of Humane Letters

Van Jones, environmental and human rights activist, attorney, author, and regular political contributor for CNN, is one of our nation's most constructive policy leaders.

Jones is the president and cofounder of Dream Corps, a social enterprise that supports campaigns and initiatives that improve the lives and livelihoods of vulnerable populations. Dream Corps initiatives include #cut50, which seeks to reduce the U.S. prison population by half by finding alternatives to mass incarceration; and #YesWeCode and Green For All, which work to bring economic opportunity to disenfranchised communities.

In 2009, Jones became the special advisor for Green Jobs, Enterprise, and Innovation at the White House Council on Environmental Quality, where he helped to run the interagency process that oversaw $80 billion in green energy recovery spending. He joined the Center for American Progress in 2010 as a senior fellow, leading their Green Opportunity Initiative. He founded Rebuild the Dream in 2011, which calls itself a "21st-century think tank that champions innovative solutions to fix the U.S. economy and uplift the next generation." The organization raises awareness and pushes for change on pressing issues, including excessive incarceration, student loan debt, and immigration.

Jones has authored two New York Times bestsellers: The Green Collar Economy in 2008 and Rebuild the Dream in 2012. He is also the cofounder of two social justice organizations, the Ella Baker Center for Human Rights, which combats overincarceration, police brutality, and urban poverty and violence, and Color of Change, which seeks to strengthen the Black political voice and make certain that all Americans are represented and served by our government.

SIMI LINTON, PHD

Doctor of Arts

Simi Linton is a writer, arts consultant, and filmmaker who has been active for more than 40 years in increasing the visibility of disabled people in society, and in particular in the arts.

Linton is the author of Claiming Disability: Knowledge and Identity and the memoir My Body Politic. She recently coproduced and directed the documentary Invitation to Dance, an insider's account of disability in 21st-century America. The film traces Linton's personal growth as a disabled woman and the historically significant developments around her over the past 40 years.

Linton's consultancy practice, Disability/Arts, works to shape the presentation of disability in the arts and to increase the representation of works by disabled artists. She received the 2015 Barnard College Medal of Distinction and was recently appointed to New York City's Cultural Affairs Advisory Commission.

She holds degrees from Columbia University and New York University, and was on the faculty of the City University of New York for 14 years.

WILLIAM K. SESSIONS III

Doctor of Laws

Judge William K. Sessions III is a senior judge on the United States District Court for the District of Vermont. He is a graduate of Middlebury College (1969) and the George Washington University Law School (1972).

Sessions practiced law in Vermont from 1973 until 1995, first as a public defender and later in private practice. He also served as adjunct professor at Vermont Law School from 1978 until 1995. He was appointed by President Bill Clinton in 1995 to serve as a United States District Court Judge in Vermont, where he continues to serve today. In 1999, Sessions was nominated and confirmed as vice chair of the United States Sentencing Commission and served in that capacity until he was appointed chair in 2009 by President Barack Obama.

Sessions recently served as chair of the Vermont Climate Change Economy Council and is currently chair of the Committee on Evidence Rules for the Judicial Conference of the United States.

Judge Sessions is married to Abigail Procter Sessions '71 and has three children, Hannah, Myra, and Jonathan, and seven grandchildren, Livia, Hayden, Calvin, Winslow, Audrey, Thatcher, and Wyland.

GAMALIEL PAINTER'S CANE

Words by Charles B. Wright, Professor Emeritus of English, Hon DLitt, Class of 1915

Music by E. Pruda Harwood Wiley, Class of 1912

When Gamaliel Painter died,
He was Middlebury's pride,
A sturdy pioneer without a stain;
And he left his all by will
To the college on the hill
And included in a codicil a cane.

Chorus

Oh, it's rap rap rap,
And it's tap tap tap,
If you listen you can hear it sounding plain;
For a helper true and tried,
As the generations glide,
There is nothing like Gamaliel Painter's cane.

ALMA MATER

Words by Margaret Dounce Dale '43 and Dorothy Hood Bittmann '43

Walls of ivy, paths of beauty,
We have known and loved them well.
Spir-ed chapel rising proudly,
Morning hymn and evening bell.

Middlebury, Alma Mater,
Symbol of His strength and truth.
Symbol of His strength and truth.

Sunset glowing o'er the mountains
Snowy peaks and winding ways
Peaceful stillness o'er the campus
Mem'ries of most happy days.

Middlebury, Alma Mater,
Symbol of His strength and truth.
Symbol of His strength and truth.

Loyal ever in these friendships
We have spent four glorious years
Filling us with hope and courage
Till the hour of parting nears.

Middlebury, Alma Mater,
Symbol of His strength and truth.
Symbol of His strength and truth.

MIDDLEBURY COLLEGE DIPLOMA

(English Translation)

Middlebury College
in the State of Vermont
To all students of letters
Eternal greeting in the Lord

Be it now known to you that the President of the College, with the approval of our honored and esteemed Fellows, has dignified and graced _____ with the title and rank of Bachelor of Liberal Arts, and has conferred on her/him all the privileges and honors pertaining thereto. Let the official seal of the College and the signature of the President bear witness to this act.

Issued at the College on the 29th of May, in the year of the Lord 2016, and in the 240th year of the American Republic.

THE SEAL

The official seal of Middlebury College shows an open book, with simple marks for letters. The College's motto, Scientia et Virtus (Knowledge and Virtue), is written on either side of the book. Around the edge of the seal are four abbreviated Latin words: Coll. Med. Virid. Mon. Their full form is Collegium Medioburiense Viridis Montis; in English, Middlebury College of Vermont.

GAMALIEL PAINTER'S CANE

Gamaliel Painter's cane is one of the most treasured artifacts of the College. Once the walking stick of the founder of both the Town and the College, today it is carried by the president in the academic procession. It serves as the College's mace and as a symbol of institutional strength and character. The president will present to members of the Class of 2016 a replica of the original cane, reminding the graduates that they go forward from Middlebury with the strength and character of the College always at their side.

Students carrying a cane in the academic procession are those who completed their degree requirements in December 2015 or January 2016 and received their canes at the February celebration earlier this year.

THE MEDALLION

The presidential medallion, which is worn on all ceremonial occasions, carries the official seal of Middlebury College on the obverse and the name of the current president and date of inauguration on the reverse. The first presidential medallion was presented to Samuel S. Stratton by the Board of Trustees upon his inauguration as the 11th president of Middlebury College in 1943.

FLAGS 2016

The flags displayed at Commencement represent the countries of our international graduates and are flown in alphabetical order. The graduates choose the flags by which they will be represented.

ACADEMIC COSTUME

The academic costume, which originated at Oxford and Cambridge Universities in England in the 1300s, has been in use in the United States since colonial days, although not until the 1890s was there a decided movement toward greater use of the academic costume by senior classes, trustees, and faculties. In 1895, representatives of American schools codified standards for academic dress with the establishment of the Intercollegiate Dress Code.

THE GOWN

The flowing gown comes from the 12th century. While it originally may have been worn as protection against the cold of unheated buildings, today it has become symbolic of the democracy of scholarship, for it covers any dress of rank or social standing. Traditionally it is black for all degrees.

The bachelor's gown is relatively simple, with long, pleated front panels, and intricate shirring across the shoulders and back. The gown is worn closed and is distinguished by its long, pointed sleeves.

The master's gown has the same yoke effect but is designed to be worn open. It has a very long sleeve, oblong in shape with an arc cut out of the bottom of the front. The oblong is closed at the base and the forearm protrudes through a notched slit at the elbow.

Gowns for the doctor's degree are also designed to be worn open, but carry five-inch-wide velvet panels, which extend all the way to the bottom of the garment. Three horizontal velvet bars are stitched on the upper arm of the full, round, bell-shaped sleeves. This velvet trimming may be either black or the color distinctive of the faculty to which the degree refers.

In recent years a number of universities have adopted alternative robes using their traditional school colors, such as crimson for Harvard, blue for Yale, slate gray for Columbia, maroon for Chicago, and cardinal red for Stanford.

THE CAP

When the slave was freed by Roman law, he won the privilege of wearing a cap. The academic cap is a sign of freedom of scholarship and the responsibility and dignity with which scholarship endows the wearer. Old poetry records the cap of scholarship as square to symbolize the book. The cap worn almost universally in academic processions is the Oxford cap, better known as the mortarboard. The tassel may either be black or reflect the scholarly subject, although only doctor's degree recipients may have gold thread. A different style cap, the Cambridge cap, resembles a large beret.

THE HOOD

The hood is the most distinguishing feature of all academic costumes. Originally, it seems to have had three uses: as a hood covering; as a shoulder cape; or, when hung from the shoulder, as a bag in which alms could be collected.

The size and shape of the American hood mark the college degree of the wearer. The hood's outside is bordered with velvet of the proper width to indicate the degree and the proper color to indicate the department or field of study. Thus, a degree conferred as Bachelor of Arts requires the white of arts, letters, and humanities, whereas the Bachelor of Science degree requires the yellow of science.

The shapes of the bachelor's hood and the master's hood are similar, the former being three feet in overall length and the latter three and one-half feet. The doctor's hood has a base that is rounder and has an overall length of four feet. The respective widths of the velvet borders are two inches for the bachelor's, three inches for the master's, and five inches for the doctor's hood. The covered lining on the inside of the hood is the official color or colors of the institution conferring the degree. Where there is more than one color, the second color is usually represented by a chevron, a wide stripe across the background color, or field. Thus, the inside of the Middlebury hood has a blue background with a white chevron.

Members of the governing board of the degree-conferring institution normally wear the doctor's gown, but their hoods represent only such degrees as are actually held.

A FEW NOTES

CEREMONY VIEWING OPTIONS

For those who may wish to be out of the weather, we provide live-viewing areas located in both Wilson Hall, in McCullough Student Center (behind the rain tent), and in Mead Chapel, located up the hill.

PROFESSIONAL PHOTOGRAPHY/VIDEOS

Photographers (Grad Images: 800-261-2576) and videographers (Collegiate Video: 802-365-4414) are here to record seniors receiving their diplomas. Please contact them directly with any questions.

GUEST PHOTO AREAS

Guests are welcome to take pictures from the designated photography areas following the Commencement speech. Ushers can direct you to these areas.

FINDING YOUR GRADUATE AFTER THE CEREMONY

At the conclusion of today's Commencement exercises, the recessional will proceed up the hill to either side of Mead Chapel, where parents, family, and guests can meet graduates and join us for a complimentary luncheon. Should weather force us inside, we will make an announcement that lunch will be in Atwater, Proctor, and Ross Dining Halls. We invite you all to attend.

SPECIAL NEEDS

Those with mobility needs may ride to Proctor Terrace in a shuttle van that departs from Storrs Walk on Old Chapel Road, which is to the right of the audience.
